

Certificate of Authenticity

_____ OF 500

THIS SIGNED AND NUMBERED, LITHOGRAPH OFFERS BRILLIANT USE OF COLOR AND A SIMPLE, YET ELEGANT PERSPECTIVE OF THE WELL-KNOWN MONARCH BUTTERFLY.

MONARCHS ARE ESPECIALLY NOTED FOR THEIR LENGTHY ANNUAL MIGRATION. HOW THE SPECIES MANAGES TO RETURN TO THE SAME OVERWINTERING SPOTS OVER A GAP OF SEVERAL GENERATIONS IS STILL A MYSTERY TO SCIENTISTS; THEIR FLIGHT PATTERNS APPEAR TO BE BASED ON THE POSITION OF THE SUN.

THE ACTUAL PRINT MEASURES 14" X 11" AND IS SIZED TO FIT A STANDARD 16" X 20" FRAME WITH MATTE. THERE ARE ONLY 500 PRINTS AVAILABLE IN THE EDITION.

"TREASURES OF LIFE"

All proceeds from the sale of this print will be donated to the South Carolina Ovarian Cancer Foundation in assisting women with early detection, prevention and treatment of ovarian cancer.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Lucius Jumper, a graphic artist and web designer by day; is a 2001 graduate of Winthrop University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. Lucius maintains an art studio at his home in Columbia, South Carolina, where he enjoys painting and experimenting with various types of media during his free time and is actively involved with the art community.

The artist's works are primarily inspired by the natural surroundings of everyday life. The intention of his work is to capture a unique perspective, the brilliant qualities of light; depicting a feeling of warmth and reflection on a single place in time.

803.609.3798

luciusjumper@yahoo.com